

Automatic Systems for Road Barriers

Two versions are available, for arm lengths up to 5m and for arms up to 7m.

The possibility to have the traffic light management .

Prepared for battery back up system.

- extremely easy use and programming of the barrier
- automatic obstacle detection in compliance with statutory regulations

- Articulated arm in line with the new design, with built in rubber profile and light system
- user-friendly, safe external unlocking
- quick maintenance thanks to the barrier's modular construction.
- Built-in photocells thanks to the innovative hide-away system
- Built in flashing light